Various signs indicate that school is once again in session. The activity board in front of the school advertises a busy fall schedule, and Parking Permits appear on many bumpers in the parking lot.

Even in the heat of early September, the athletic teams are practicing for a winning season.

OCTOBER FEATURES HOMECOMING AND FARMERS' FAIR

Farmers' Fair 4
Finds many people gathering weeds for dried flower arrangements and canning foods. ---- Students use the library. ---- The band is raising money for uniforms.

Cheri Hoffman resting after a tough 16 day in gym. ----Over usage has caused multiple injuries to the telephone. ----Gorden Heisey is hard at work on his shop project. ----John Knaub gazes on. ----A common sight at Halloween time are pumpkins.

Farmers' Fair Contestants: M. Seifert, T. May, S. Brough, K. Boyd, B. King, L. A. Dice, R. Binner, J. Hershey, R. Walsh, S. Rankin, B. Cleland, K. Klugh, A. Aungst, L. Chronister, T. Moyer, and T. Bittle.

Homecoming. The court: Tina Sowers
(2nd runner-up),
Jodie Grace, Tina
May (Queen), Lisa
Detter, Cheri Hoffman, Nancy Atland,
Denise Myers, Mary
Nell, and Lou Ann
Dice (1st runner-up).

The Long and

One of the highlights of "Our Year" is the Homecoming Dance presided over by the Queen and her Court and attended by the students and alumni. During the evening some dancers take a refreshment break others, Ty Lemkelde and Pam Yohn; Kim Miller and friend; and Sharon Mentzer and Bob Knaub enjoy watching. Throughout, the ninth grade cheerleaders were kept busy filling the punch bowl.

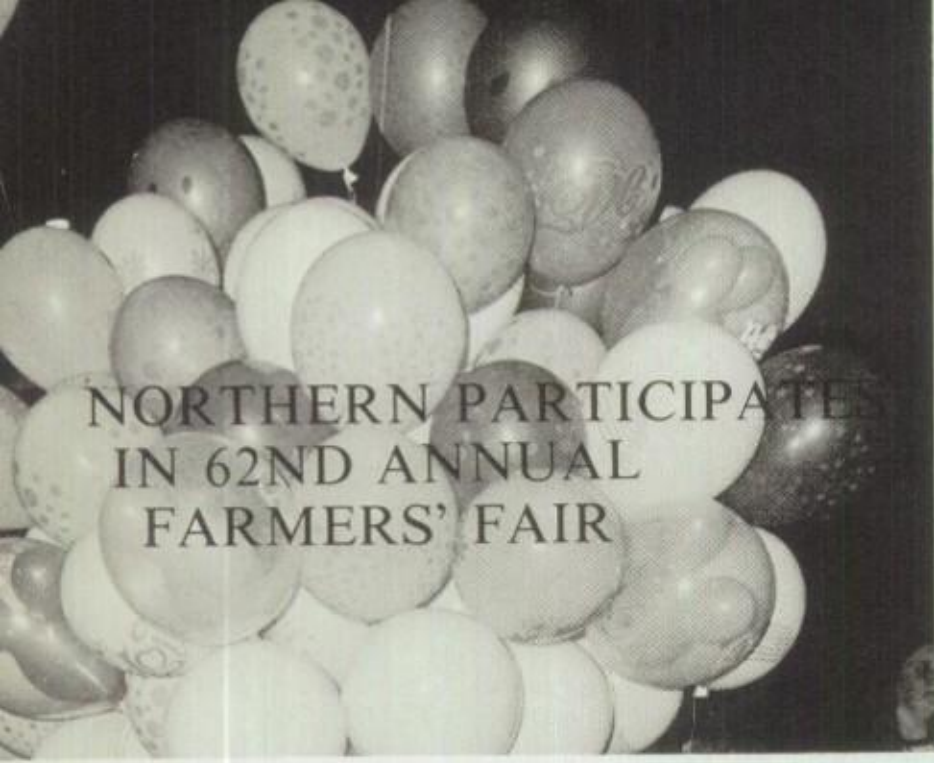

Winding Road

During the half time of the Homecoming Football Game, the annual Crowning of the Queen Ceremony was held. Mr. O'Neal, Assistant Principal, and last year's Queen, Tammy Fickes, crowned the new Queen, Tina May. The first and second runners up were Lou Ann Dice and Tina Sowers respectively. The other members of the court were Denise Myers, Jodie Grace, Nancy Altland, Mary Nell, Lisa Detter, and Cheri Hoffman.

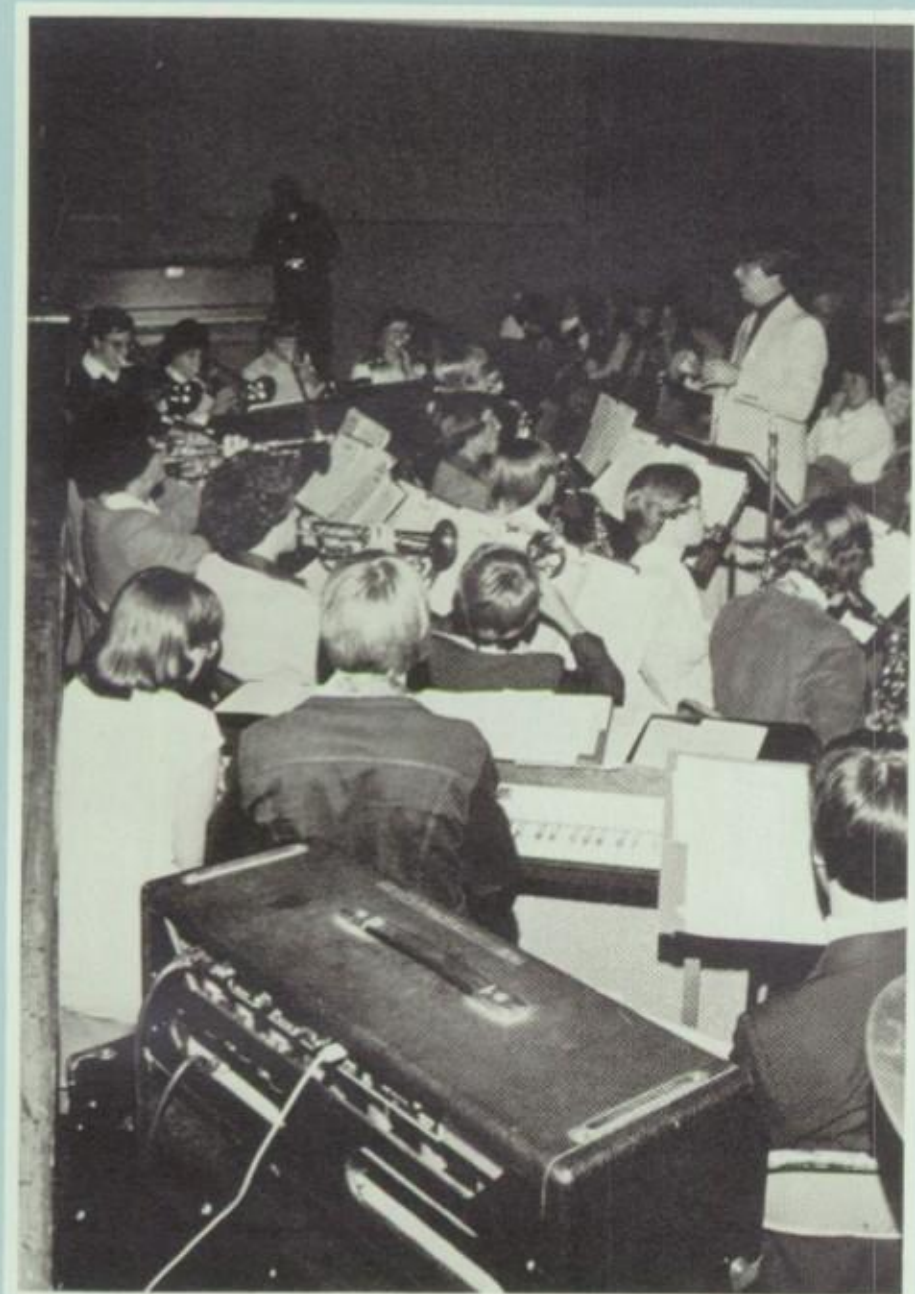

NORTHERN PARTICIPATES IN 62ND ANNUAL FARMERS' FAIR

Everyone at Northern gets involved in Farmer's Fair Weekend (October 20, 21, 22). Pam Watts gets some help from Mr. McClellan at the Junior Class food stand while Rick Rhoads, Shirley Zimmerman, Bob Bell and John Richardson stop for a chat. At the pageant, Roxanne Binner, followed by Kim Boyd, leads the procession of Farmer's Fair Queen candidates. The final selection for Queen's Court was Shelley Rankin, Queen, with Kim Klugh and Tracey Bittle, first and second runners up.

While Mr. Riley conducted the Stage Band as they performed for the waiting audience before the Farmers' Fair Queen's Pageant, Mrs. Hager ran through a last minute rehearsal with the Bear Singers.

During the Pageant, Mr. Bostic, on behalf of the Farmers' Fair Committee, dedicated the fair to Mr. T. Gilpen Cooke for his many years of devoted service to the success of the Fair. In addition, Mr. Bostic presented a plaque of appreciation to Mrs. Cooke, her daughter, and two sons.

The final festivity, THE FANTASTIC PARADE, was led off by the Northern Band Front and Band

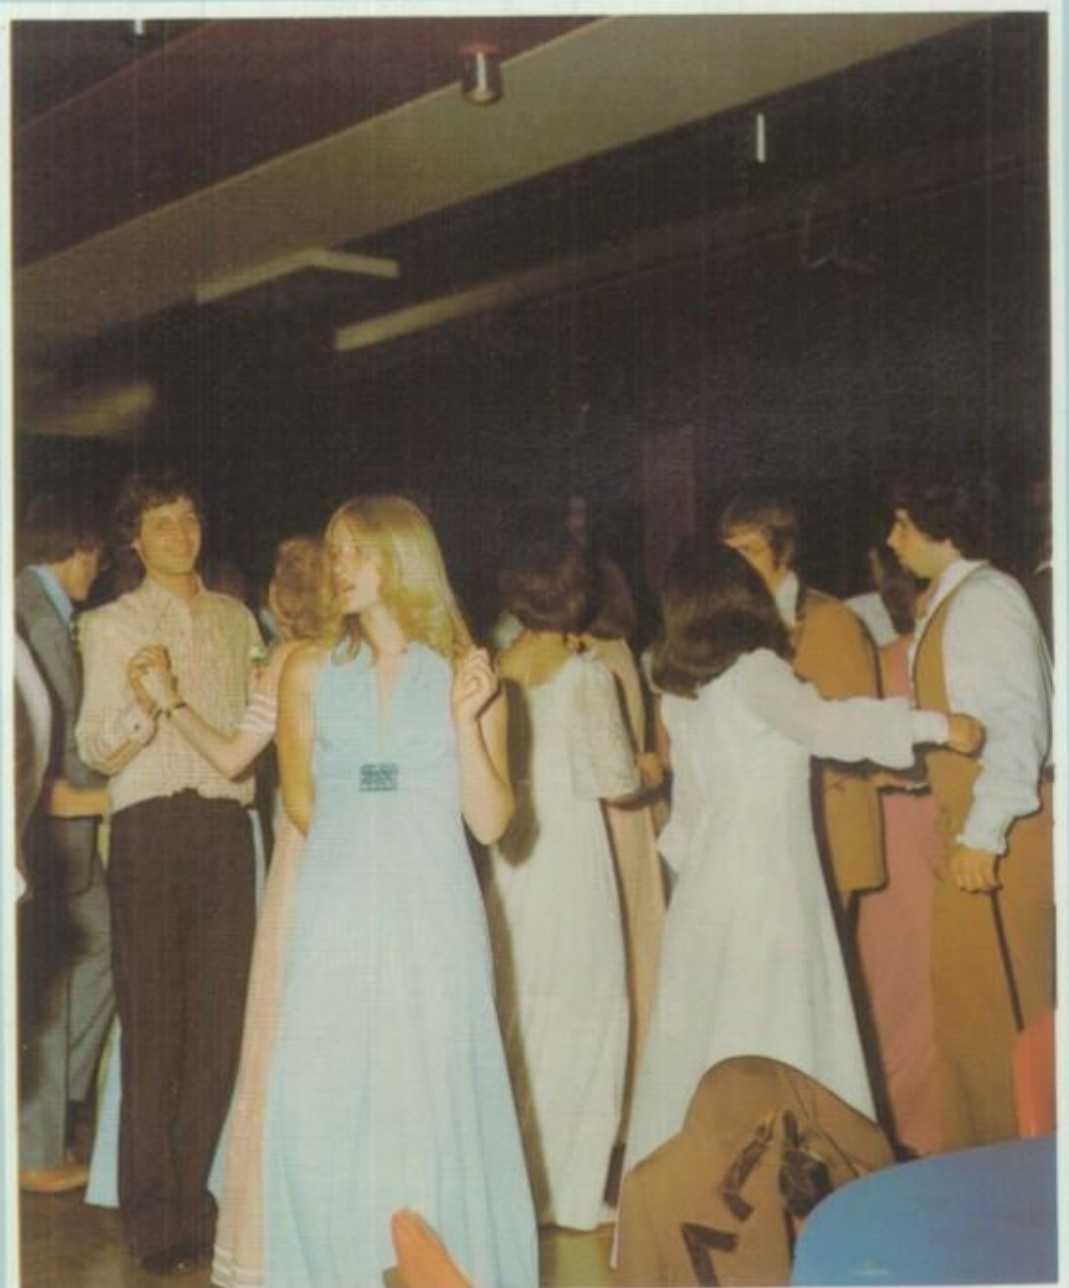

Stairway

The 1977 Junior-Senior Prom, "Fantasies of Love," was held at the Host Inn, Harrisburg, on May 21, 1977.

After eating a delicious dinner of baked ham with raisin sauce, vegetables, rolls, and strawberry Sunday dessert, the students moved to the dance floor to get into the "groove" of SATURDAY. Midway through the evening, after being crowned Prom Queen, Jody Vasquez and Rick Rhoads, the Junior Class President, danced to the theme song, "Stairway to Heaven." While some enjoyed dancing, others, like Holly Dahlhammer and her escort, preferred to play pool or, like Kathy Husic and her date, to sit by the pool and talk. Still others, Barb Smith and Dan Murray, enjoyed strolling through the interesting corridors of the Inn. Many spent time waiting in line to have their souvenir prom pictures taken.

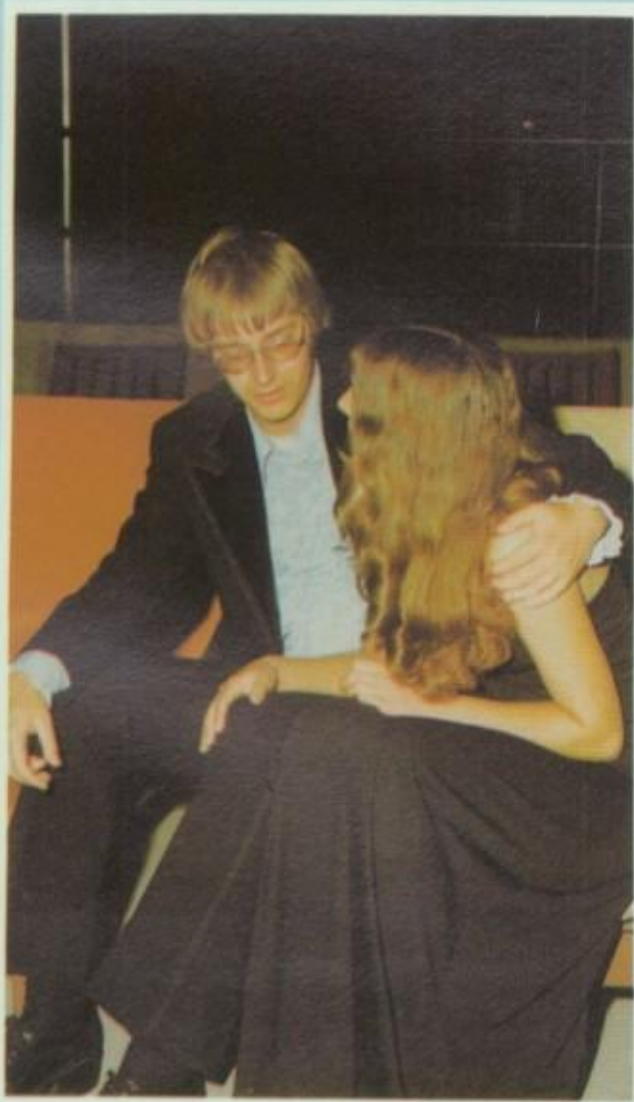

All too soon the evening ended, but as the candle remained bright, so do the memories of "Fantasy of Love."

VO TECH — IMPORTANT

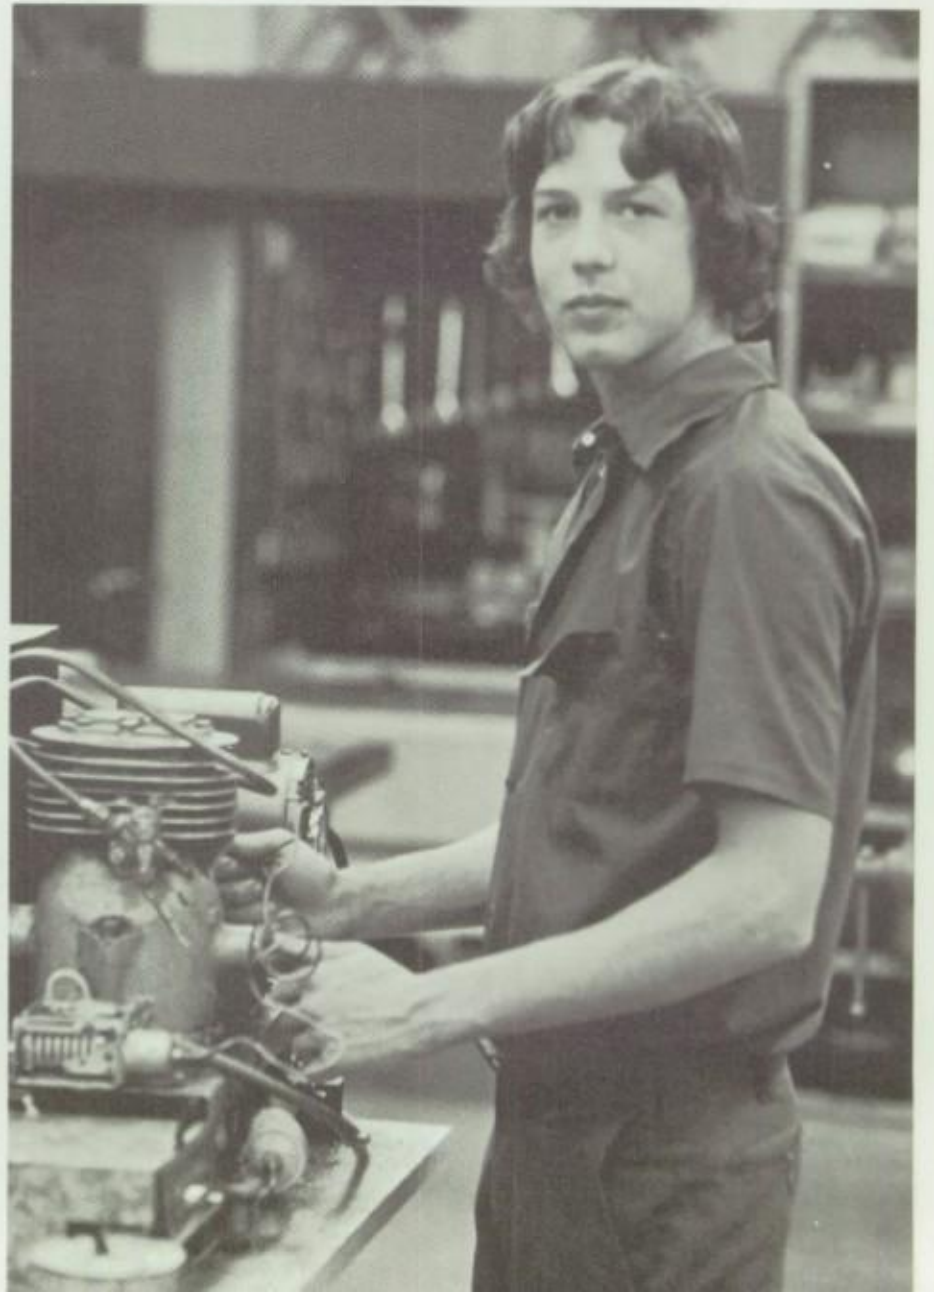

While still attending school, many Northern students receive on-the-job training at Cumberland Perry Vo-Tech school. Gary Oyler, in the Carpentry Curriculum, attaches trim to his project. Food Management students like Penny Cassel learn good dietary practices. Deanna Pfeiffer learns to raise and tend plants in Horticulture. Students, such as Tammy Toomey, practice daily secretarial duties in Office Management.

BRANCH OF NORTHERN'S EDUCATION

A few of the other shops are represented with Barry Myers who studies in the Automotive Body Curriculum. In Electronics, Sam Danner and John Watson learn to operate technical machinery. In Law-Enforcement, Mark Lekrone practices taking a criminal, Paul King, into custody. Jerry Brandt, in Mechanics, learns to repair small engines

The 1977 Golf Team, coached by Mr. Robert Baker, finished the season tied for 2nd place with the record of 5 wins and 3 defeats.

Scott Binner (Capt.), who finished the season with the lowest average in the league, and Kevin Zinn represented the Blue Mountain League at Districts.

COACH BAKER RETURNS

The top five men from Northern's Golf Team are Scott Binner, Dennis Davis, Scott Krout, Kevin Zinn, and Don Klugh carried the team through a successful season.

Since Scott Binner is the only senior on the team, next year's team can expect experience and strength from Dennis, Scott, Kevin, and Don. Mr. Baker, pictured above with League Champion, Scott Binner, has returned to coach Golf after a 4 season hiatus.

HARRIERS CROSS THE LINE

3-WAY TIE FOR HARRIERS

Tri-Champs of the Blue Mountain League, the Northern Harriers ended a successful year with an overall season of 14 wins and 1 loss. The Cross-Country Team members are Lynn Danner, Jim Wallace, Mark Putt, Keith Murray, Kevin Hopkins, John Elliot, Mike Putt, Marty Walsh, John Breech, Anita Aungst, and Beth Aungst.

Among the many meets which the Harriers attended, the Conference Meet was the most rewarding. Here, the Northern Harriers captured third place coming to the finish line in the following order: 6, 15, 16, 20, 22. Out of the 32 participating schools at the District Three Meet, Northern finished in 7th place.

BEARETTS CAPTURE

VARSIITY: B. Cleland, K. Standford, L. Detter, D. Vasquez, J. Perrego, M. Nell, Z. Drag, L. Byers, R. Walsh, S. Myers, K. Weirick, B. Smith.
Managers: B. Denison, T. Griffie, G. Quigley.

Northern's 1977 Varsity Hockey team captured a division record with 5 wins, 0 losses and 2 ties, and an overall record of 5 wins, 2 losses, and 3 ties.

Although the first game with East Pennsboro ended in a disappointing 2-2 tie followed by a crushing defeat 0-2 from the Littlestown Thunderbolts and a 0-1 loss to New Oxford, the Bearettes did not lose spirit. The team buckled down to win their first league game with Shippensburg (3-2) and pluck the Susquenita Black-hawks 2-0. Boiling Springs slowed Northern down with a 2-2 tie, but Northern rallied to defeat Camp Hill 2-0 and trounce Scotland 2-1. Only Big Spring remained between Northern and the #1 spot. Both teams played a strong, fast, and to the fans, exciting game which ended in a tough 0-0 tie. The Waynesboro Maidens went down to a 3-0 defeat, and, with the division title won, Northern was ready to meet Gettysburg for the league title. The Bears fought hard, but had to settle for second place when Gettysburg won by penetration. The Northern Bearettes are coached by Miss Dietz. Denise Vasquez led the season with 7 goals, Lisa Detter with 4 goals, Mary Nell and Lisa Byers with 2 goals, and Barb Smith with 1 goal. Joceyln Perrego, goalie had 48 saves.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coaches- Mr. Cashman, Mr. Wain, Mr. Rudisill, Mr. Rehmyer, Mr. Martini, Mr. Boreman, Mr. Speck, Mr. Wenger, Mr. McManus, Mr. Oiler.

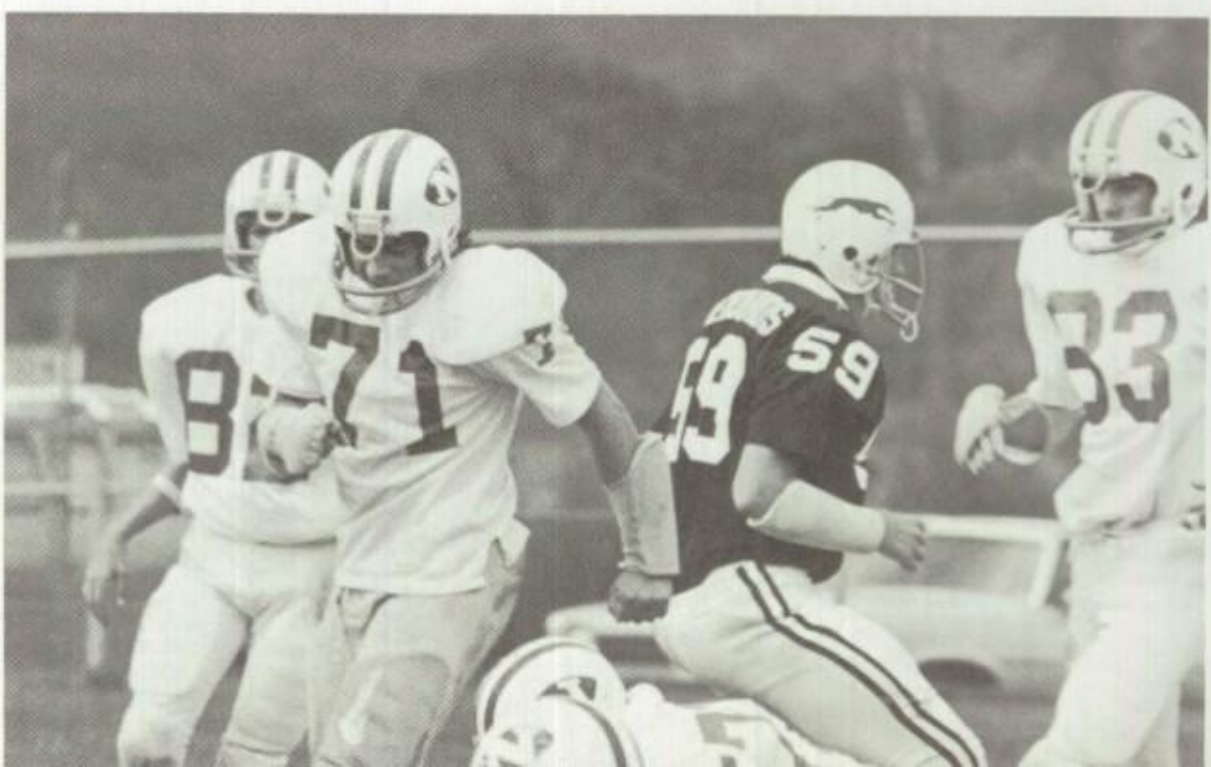

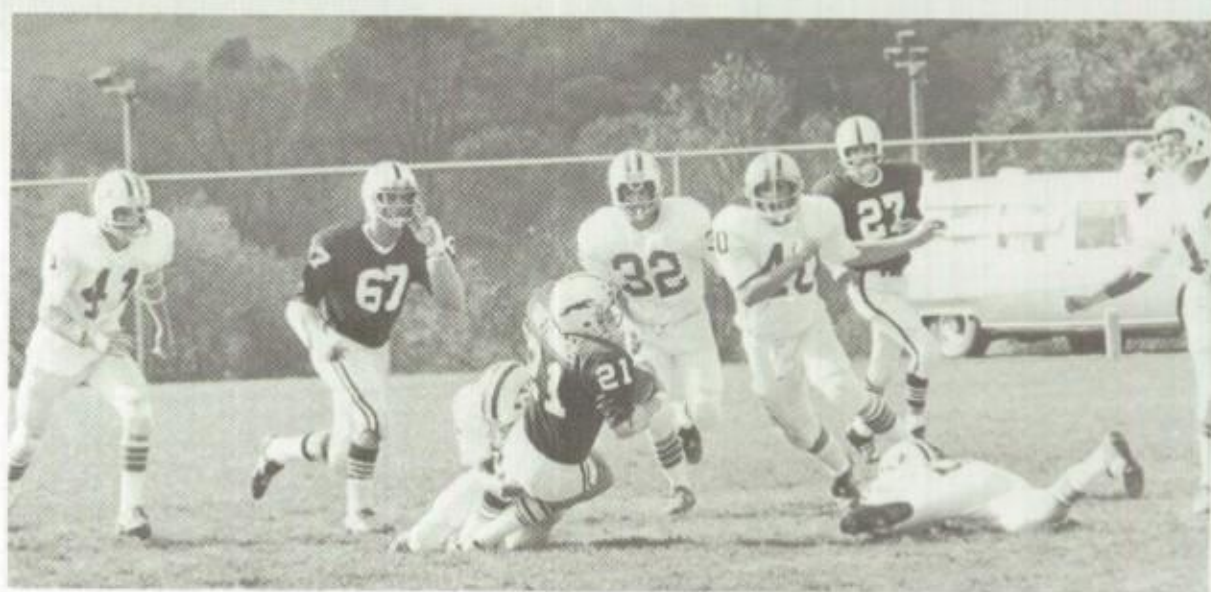

After a long summer of practicing, strengthening, hard working, and pressuring from the coaches, the football team fortuantly began the season with a loss to East Penn. Even though the biginning was rough, the team ended the 1977 season with a 6-5 record.

Carl Schartner led the team with scoring forty-six points and in passing 143 attempts with 71 completions. Steve Murphy, a senior, also led the team in scoring thirty points and in rusing a total of 428 yards. Tackle Tim Hershey was out in front with a total of 92 tackles for the season.

JV FOOTBALL

The Junior Varsity Football players also could not quite manage to get the season off to a good start. After being defeated by Bermudian Springs, Coaches Martini and Wain believed that with more work the team could be winners. Without letting the coaches down, the team got their spirit together and finished the season with 7 wins and only 2 losses.

PARENT'S HONORED AT NORTHERN

BEARS MEET LIONS ON PARENT'S DAY

October 29, 1977, was the day for recognizing the band, bandfront, cheerleaders, and football seniors for their hard work. Shown are Steve Murphy, Rick Rhodes, Ed Seik, Jodie Grace with their parents as well as the band and bandfront seniors with their parents who were honored at a pre-game ceremony.

Carl Schartner passes off to Steve Murphy in a desperate attempt to score for the Bears. The game, which was the Bears' last home game, ended with a score of Lions 20-Bears 0.

THE THRILL OF VICTORY . . .

The 1977 Powderpuff Game was one to remember! Though the Seniors fought diligently, they were no match for the Juniors who stayed ahead throughout the whole game. Beth Aungst, Bev Cleland, Barb Smith, and Denise Vasquez scored the winning points for the 30-0 Junior shut-out.

JUNIORS: Janet Miller, Barb Smith, Bev Cleland, Rachel Walsh, Tammy Beck, Deb Rhodes, Sue Miller, Laurie Miller, Brenda Bodisch, Lisa Wilt, Deb Wilson, Marie Jeffery, Lori Klinedinst, Denise Taylor, Beth Aungst, Eve Lutz, Sandy Carroll, Cheryl Rodger, Shirley Zimmerman, Lois Cramer, Denise Vasquez, Amy Ramsey.

GRAPPLERS MUSCLE WAY TO TOP

VARSITY WRESTLERS -- ROW 1: M. Walsh, E. Shaffer, R. Munkittrick, B. Witmer, J. Johnson, J. Brandt.
ROW 2: M. Fuss, J. Brent, T. Hershey, S. Morret, S. Dimmick, J. Richardson

WRESTLING CAPTAINS -- T. Hershey, B. Witmer.

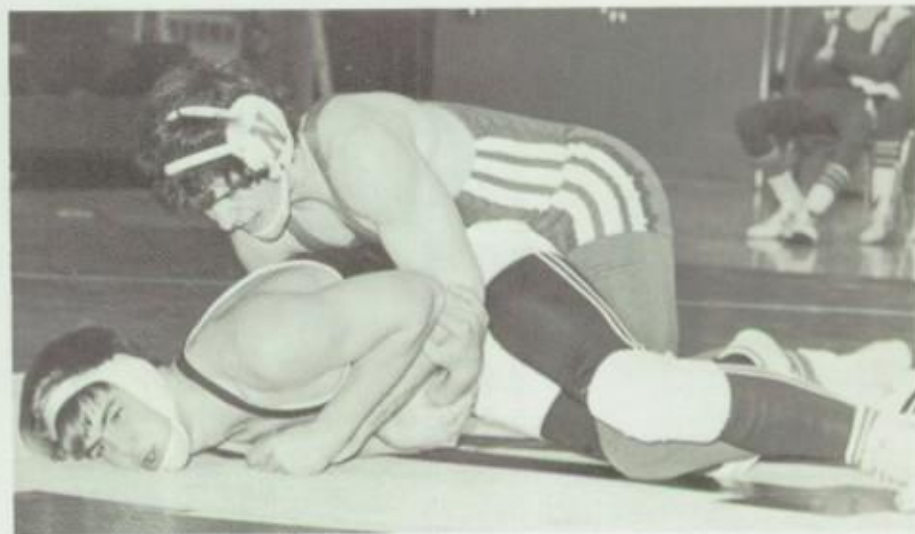

SENIORS -- ROW 1: R. Murray, B. Witmer, D. Pannebaker, J. Brandt. ROW 2: T. Hershey, S. Morret, J. Richardson, S. Dimmick, B. Knaub.

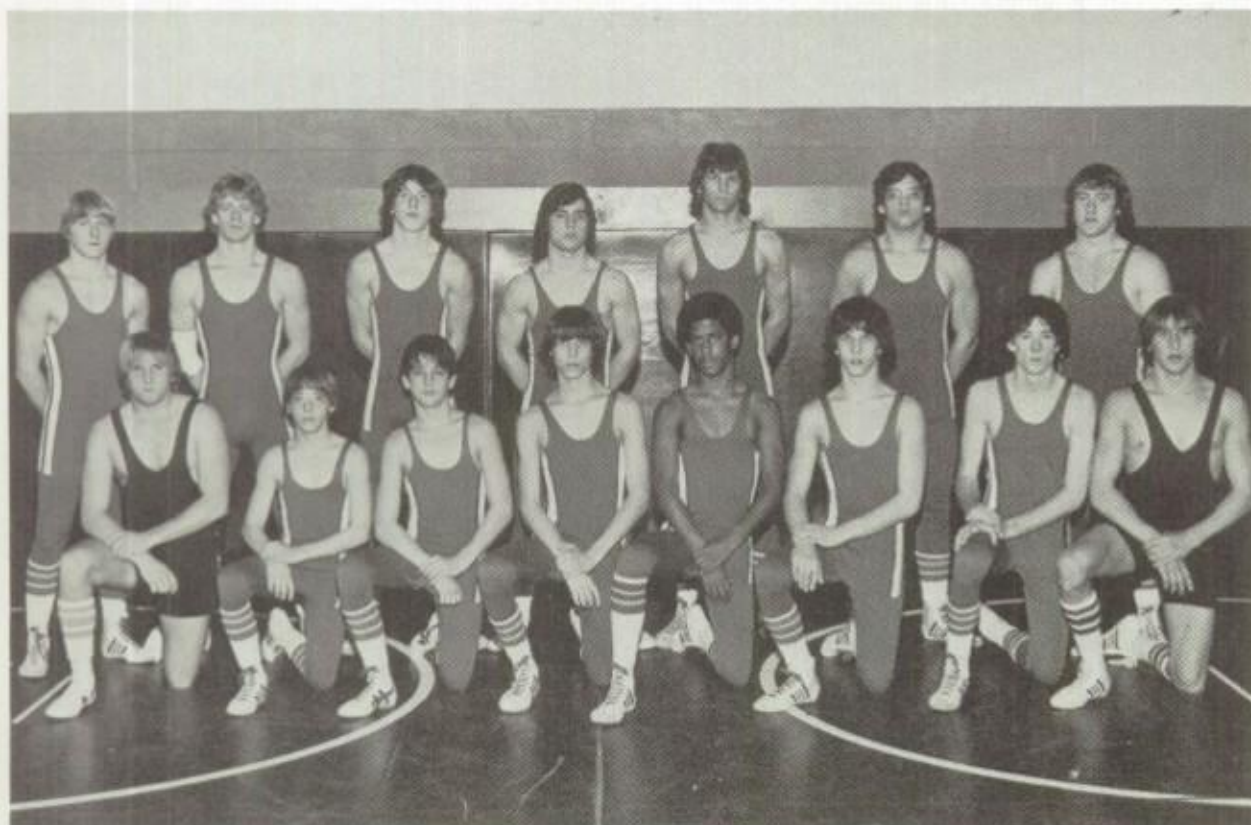

Mr. Wenger, Mr. Barley, and Mr. Rudisill ponder the next move they should instruct to the wrestler on the mat. Marty Walsh tries to turn his man over for two points or a possible pin. Steve Morret puts the move on his man as he too goes for a win. Jerry Brandt has his man almost to the mat, with a tighter hold he can pin him.

The wrestling team began their season on December 8 by upsetting the Camp Hill Lions. They followed in their usual style with victories over East Pennsboro and New Oxford. The team had a week off before traveling to Carlisle for the annual Christmas Tournament. Northern came away with two champions, Jeff Brent at 145 lbs. and Tim Hershey at 155 lbs. Northern finished an impressive second tying with Red Land, as Solanco captured the championship.

The team started off the new year by defeating the Rockets of James Buchanan. The grapplers suffered an upset at the hands of the Gettysburg Warriors. The wrestlers will be working even harder now as they go for their third straight championship.

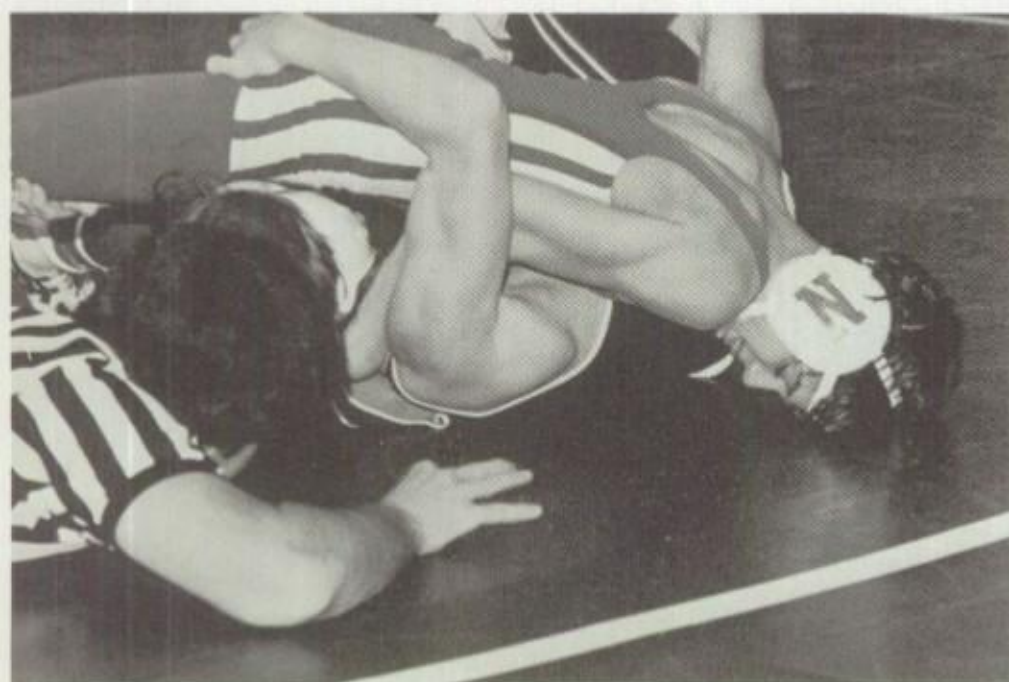

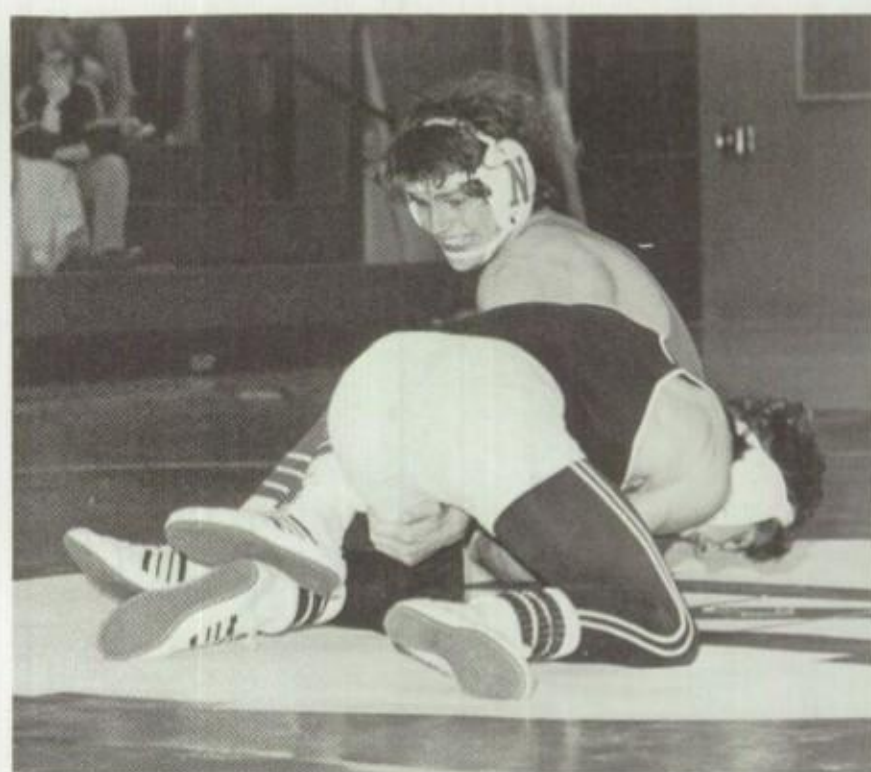

J.V.'S REACH 40 STRAIGHT WINS

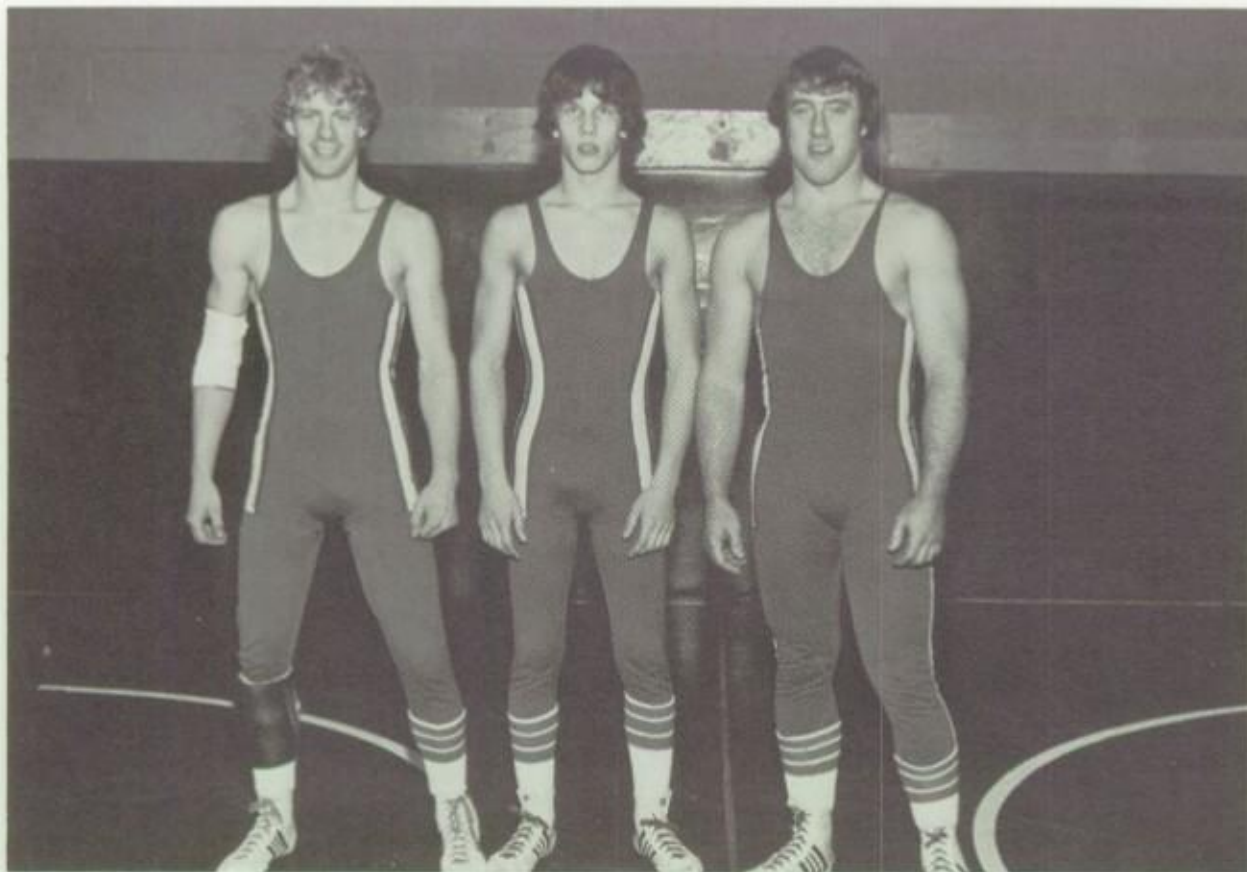

After ending last year with 36 straight wins, the team started the season off in the same fashion. The team received a forfeit from Camp Hill and then turned around and defeated the J.V. teams from East Pennsboro and New Oxford. They started off the new year with a forfeit from James Buchanan. One week later, after winning 40 matches straight, the team suffered a grave loss from Gettysburg. Overall the team had a successful year.

J. V. WRESTLING TEAM -- ROW 1: R. Darbrow, J. Breach, L. Cassell, S. Perry, E. Stansbury, R. Murray, T. Munkittrick, S. Spahr. ROW 2: B. Wallace, D. Pannabaker, M. Putt, B. Barn-er, J. Knaub, J. Zeigler, B. Knaub.

J. V. SENIORS -- D. Pannabaker, R. Murray, B. Knaub.

WRESTLING MANAGERS -- R. Witmer, E. Books.

WRESTLING COACHES -- C. Rudisill (J. V. coach), T. Barley (Var. coach), K. Wenger (J. V. Assit. coach).

Suzanne (Doodle) Shaffer, sister of wrestler Eric Shaffer, practices her cheers as she gets ready for the big match. The cheerleaders anticipate their next cheer, while some watch the match, others discuss their cheers, and still another, gazes at the time.

GIRLS SHOOT FOR A VICTORY

Girl's Basketball Team--Row 1: Barb Denison, Kim Weirick, Denise Vasquez, Lisa Detter, Julie Hershey, Leslie Groshek, Carol Heisey. Row 2: Mrs. Hoffman, Donna Trout, Terry Mulherin, Bev Cleland, Cheryl Knaub, Sandy Speck, Lori Dimmick, Lori Stailey, Katrina Eichelberger, Janis Arbegast.

This year's girls' Basketball program began as a downfall. In December, the girls' Varsity experienced a coaching change from Alice Huffman to Gray Pottieger. Under the new coaching, the Varsity and Junior Varsity reignited the desire that was needed from every player. Win or lose they remembered, "Northern Pride!" Next year we will be able to appreciate the results from an outstanding building season 1977-78.

Seniors--Janis Arbegast, Sandy Speck, Barb Denison, Lisa Detter, Katrina Eichelberger.

FIRST YEAR TEAM SUCCEEDS

9th GRADE GIRL'S BASKETBALL -- ROW 1: K. Schwille, J. Cawthra, L. Detter, D. Sharp, T. Napoli, K. Musa, J. Fleming. ROW 2: L. Chronister, S. Speck, A. Aungst, S. Meyers, D. Sheaffer, T. Wise, S. Dawson, K. Lerew.

The 9th grade girls, under the management of Miss McGlaughlin, had a very successful season. The team had a lot of spirit and through their enthusiasm they became a winning team. These girls will be the stars for the next 3 years on the Girl's Basketball teams.

PLAYERS OF TOMORROW

9th GRADE VARSITY BASKETBALL -- ROW 1: J. Deardorff, R. Taylor, D. Carrell, S. Krout. ROW 2: D. Brinkley, B. Hudgens, G. Stiller, D. Waltman, D. Hoffman, Mr. Barndt.

9th GRADE JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL -- ROW 1: F. Stoner, M. Derliunas, C. Fletcher. ROW 2: J. Deardorff, R. Sholley, D. Cochran.

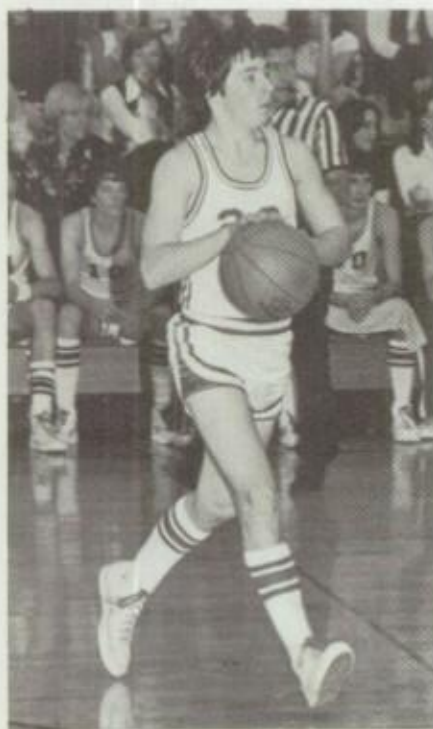

This years 9th grade team has inspired the future Basketball teams to come. The team has garnered many wins to their record, which proves just what dedication and motivation brings to a team. These ninth graders will make up next years junior varsity and possibly varsity squads.

TEAMS SHOOT FOR POINTS

Varsity Members: S. Sherman, J. Troutman, K. Baker, C. Dimmick, D. Cochran, B. Lerew, D. Ice, M. Ketterer, M. Crain, L. Danner, G. Heisey, C. St. Onge, Mr. Messenger

Judging by the win-loss record one might term the '77-78 Basketball Season a total failure. However, this is not true. A new Head Coach, Jack Messenger, assisted by Rick Speck and Mike Barndt have begun to build towards good basketball at Northern. The key to the future success is the Junior Varsity and Ninth Grade teams. Another factor that plays a major role in the success of this year's season is the dedication and devotion towards basketball demonstrated by every player on the team. With more experience Northern could be the team of the future in the Blue Mountain League.

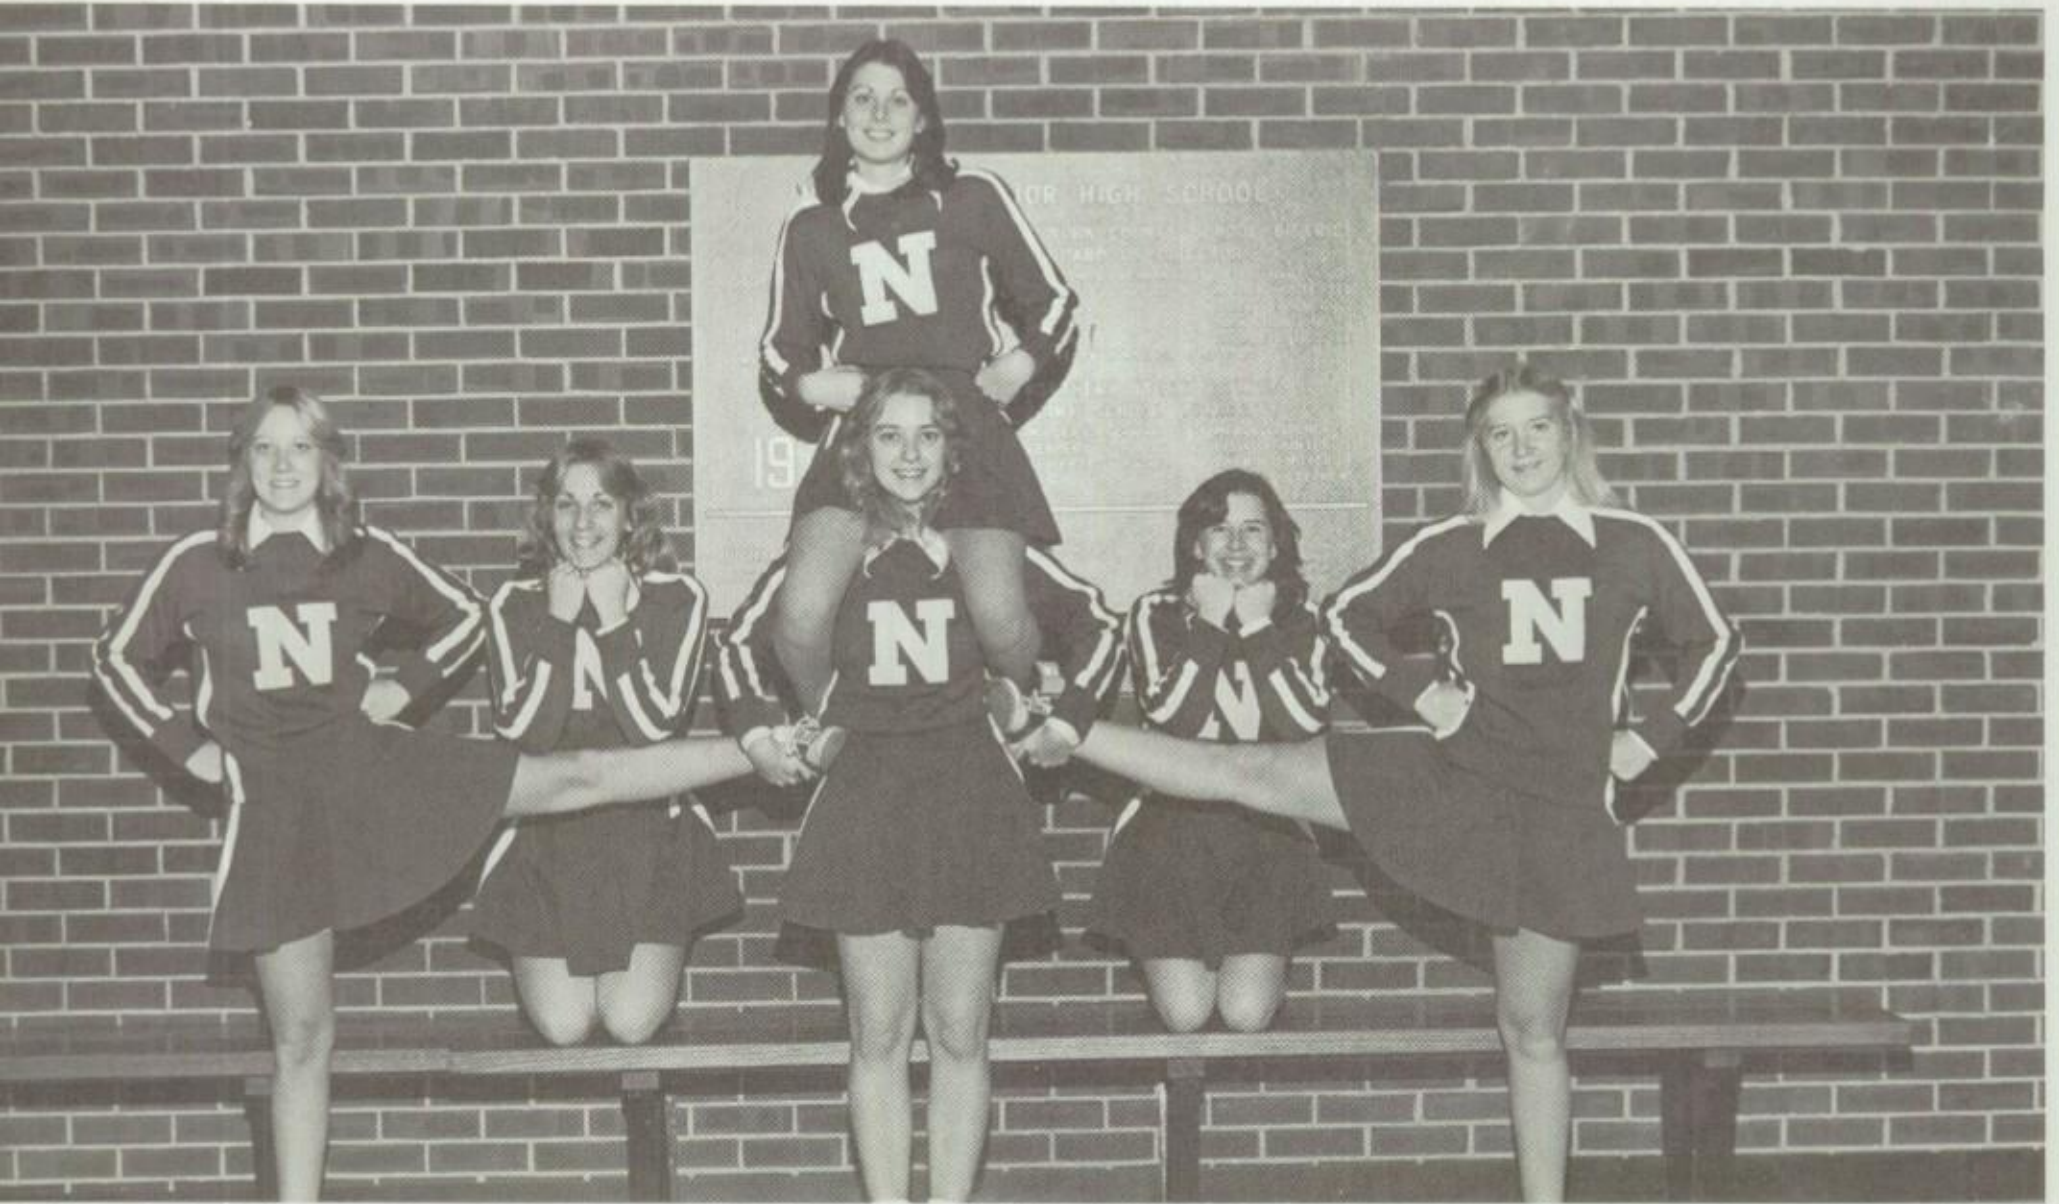

Junior Varsity Members: Row 1: J. Langland, J. Young, J. Bodisch, D. Myers, D. Klugh. Row 2: J. King, D. Baptisti, K. Ketterer, R. Stare, C. Mann, D. Reeder.

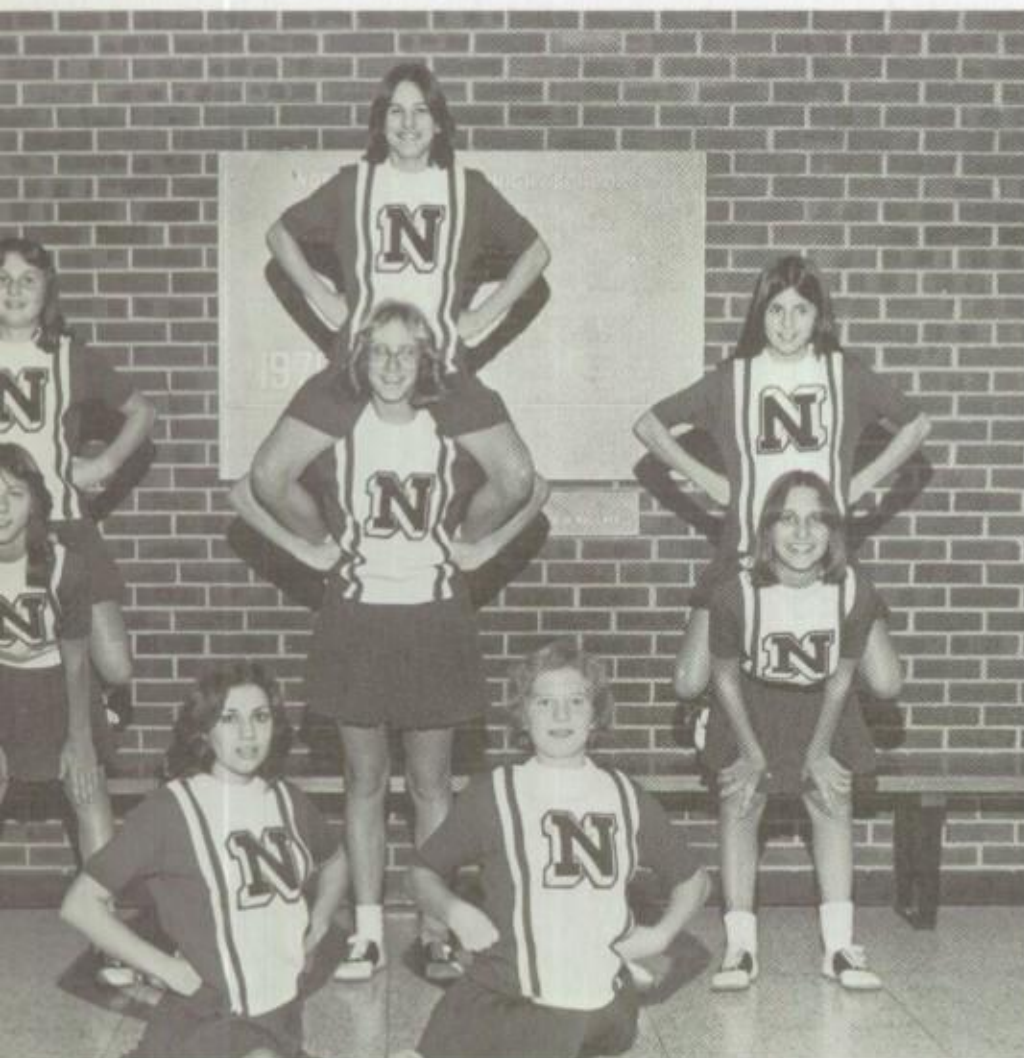

Senior Members: J. Troutman, D. Cochran, S. Klinedinst, C. St. Onge, C. Dimmick, B. Lerew, D. Ice, M. Ketterer, M. Crain, L. Danner, D. Deardorff.

The PANORAMA staff, under the supervision of Mrs. Irene Barndt works hard throughout the year to publish a book of pictured memories for the students of Northern. The Editor-in-Chief, Melissa Stufft, and the Assistant Editor, Janine Miller and all the other members of the staff begin in the middle of the summer to sell ads to raise money to help pay for the yearly publication.

After the ads are sold, the real work just begins. The staff spends many long evenings laying out pages, editing copy, and trying to make deadlines to compile a book the seniors can remember as "Our Year."

ORGANIZATIONS COMPETE FOR

To many of Northern's students, DECA is the Bookstore and the in-between-class snacks, but to the members of DECA, it is a learning experience . . . especially for Craig Warehime the store manager.

Brenda Stailey, District 5 President, and Lori Goss, District 5 State Vice-President, along with other DECA officers began the year by attending workshops at Temple and Boston.

In their annual magazine sale, the DE students sold a record of $8,034.00 worth of magazines. Money made from this sale will help to pay for DECA students to attend competitive events.

The Ninth Annual District V Career Development Conference was held January 23 at the Host Inn, Harrisburg, PA. At this event, students competed in individual competency based events. Northern DECA came home with first place honors. All students that finished in the top 3 of their competency are eligible to attend the state conference on March 5-7 at Lancaster, PA.

In the spring DE will hold its annual Fashion Show. The climax of the year's activities is the DECA Banquet held by the seniors.

DISTRICT DRAMA - Kurt Smith, Gregg St. Onge, Ty Lemkelde, Steve Di-Geronemo

Forensics, under the direction of Mr. Ned Kistler, spend a great deal of time preparing for competitions and tournaments which are divided into various categories: Public Address, Extemporaneous Speaking, and Oral Interpretation of Prose and Poetry.

The second division of Forensics, District Drama, under the direction of Miss Janice Orlowsky, rehearse a dramatic entry for district competition.

A third Forensics category is debate, coached by Mrs. Judith Kistler.

In conjunction with Forensics are the "Voice of Democracy" Contest and the Youth Forum, sponsored by Mr. Harry Kochenderfer.

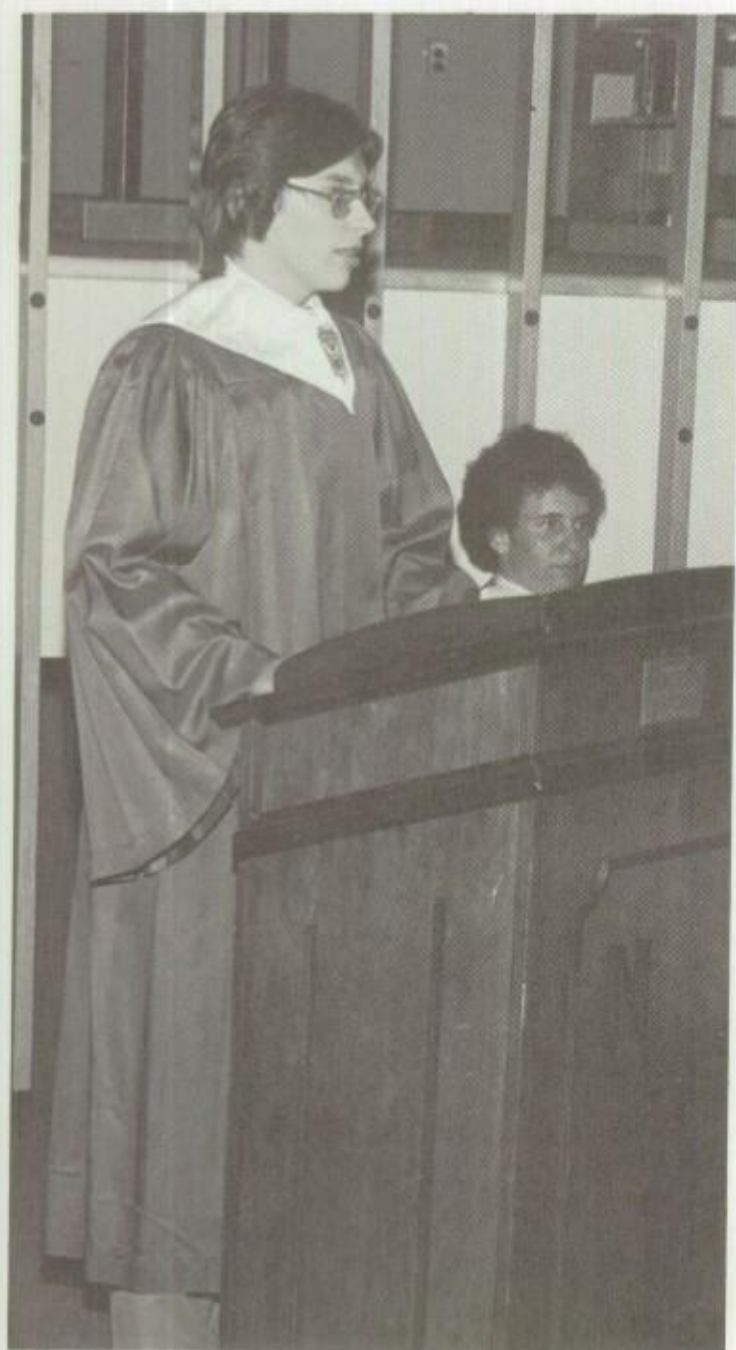

Some of the events that the Forensics group has attended are the Manfield Speech Festival, University of Pennsylvania, Liberty Bell Speech and Debate Tournament, and various Readers' Theatre productions.

The officers for this Year's Student Council are as follows: President, Craig St. Onge; Vice-President, Jim Wiley; 2nd Vice-President, Dawn Brown; Secretary, Sally Ramsey; and Treasurer, Beth Aungst.

During "Our Year" the Student Council sponsored many dances and added to the fund to paint a mural on the Gym wall. The organization also sponsored a Sports Award Night as well as the All Sports Banquet.

A revision of the Student Council Constitution was drawn up this year. A special cafeteria committee which worked with Mrs. Trout, the school dietitian, was another feature of the Student Council's activities. To better understand the problems of the cafeteria, the students served the lunch for two days of the year.

Along with these accomplishments, the Student Council provided a Powderpuff Football Game and a number of movies for the entertainment of the student body.

The 1977 Northern Field Show Band consisted of 128 members and Field Director, Tina May. Early in the summer the Band members began to prepare for the fall schedule by attending rehearsals twice a week, an occasional Festival, and the traditional Band Camp at Lebanon Valley College. Besides preparing for the Field Show, the Band held many fund raising projects such as a hat and scarf sale and a beef raffle for the purchase of new uniforms. The music boosters added to the fund by selling refreshments at all the home football games and at Farmer's Fair.

CHOIRS PREPARE FOR CONCERT

The Mixed and Women's Choirs worked hard throughout the year to present their two annual concerts. As a fund raiser, the choirs held a jewelry sale to purchase a much-needed choir shell.

On February 28th the choirs made a trip to Bloomsburg State College for the annual high school choir festival. Thirteen Pennsylvania high schools accepted the invitation to participate.

The 1978 Junior-Senior Prom, "Let It Be," was held at the Sheraton Harrisburg Inn, on May 13, 1978.

After eating a delightful dinner of fresh fruit cup, tossed salad, roast stuffed boneless breast of chicken on a ham slice, baked potato, green beans au gratin, and strawberry sundae, the crowning of the Prom Queen took place. Members of the Court were Judy Beamer (1st Runner up), Lisa Detter, Lou Ann Dice, Colleen Fuller (Queen), Tina May, Denise Myers, Sue Myers, and Kim Boyd (2nd Runner up). After Colleen was crowned Queen, her escort and herself danced to the theme "Let It Be" played by the Horizons. The Court later joined.

The 1978 Baseball Season was a rebuilding one for the Polar Bears this year. Although their overall record was (6-10), they had many outstanding players. The team was lead by Chris Davis, who played third base, with a batting average of .400. Steve Klinedinst and Rich Munkittrick had batting averages of .300 each. The team will be returning next year with a gleam in their eyes for success.

The 1978 Stage Band Concert was held on May 6, under the direction of Mr. R. Douglas Riley. This year's theme was Star Wars. Andy McWilliams provided the special effects of R2-D2 and Darth Vader.

The Annual Spring Choral Concert was held on May 18 under the direction of Mrs. Eunice Hager. The Women's Choir opened the concert with many songs and ended their part of the concert with two songs and dances from Mary Poppins. The "Bear" Singers also provided a song. Before the Mixed Choir performed, Sandy Haines presented Mrs. Hager with an appreciation gift.

The Annual Spring Band Concert was held on March 17, 1978, under the direction of Mr. Fyler and Mr. Riley, Assistant Director. As Band President Lynn Danner also directed the band. President of the Music Boosters, Tom Robson, explains the accomplishments and the hard work the music staff as well as the students put forth a successful year.

THE "KING AND I" REHEARSE

February and March were months filled with rehearsals for this year's musical production, "The King and I." The show, under the direction of Mrs. Hager, Miss Gerhard, and Mr. Riley, was held April 13, 14, 15. Teri Muehleisen leads the King's wives in the schoolroom dance.

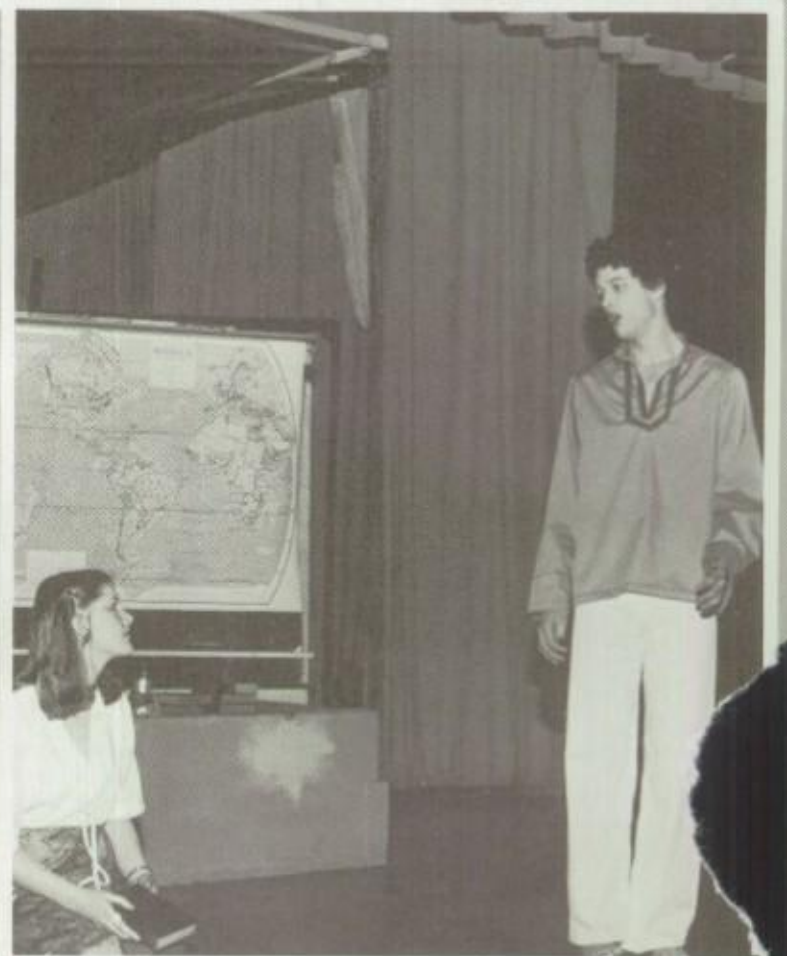

Mrs. Anna, played by Trina Schneider, greets the King's children with a handshake and a song "Getting to Know You."

Other main characters were Captain Orton-Rick Rhoads; Louis Leonowens-Steve Stone; Phra Alack-Mark Winieski; The Kralohome-Jim Wiley; Lady Thiang-Barb Rearick; Sir Edward Ramsey-Lynn Danner.

The King, played by Kevin Zinn, instructs his son Prince Chulalongkorn, Sam Burns, how to be a respectable King.
